DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Specification

The amendment filed July 26, 2004 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: the corrugation hills and valleys being "discontinuous" is not set forth in the application as originally filed, and one cannot ascertain from the drawings what feature is discontinuous between the valleys and hills when such appear to smoothly transition one to the other, thereby not showing any type of discontinuity, and if such is an attempt to claim annular, such cannot easily be seen in the drawings either, however, it is unclear what the term "discontinuous" is referring and such is not present in the original specification therefore such is new matter.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Art Unit: 3754

Claims 1 and 4-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. As set forth in the objection to the specification above, the inclusion of the language that the hills and valleys are discontinuous is new matter, and there is no support in the specification for this terminology and the drawings do not show any type of discontinuity between the transition from hills to valleys, therefore such is considered new matter.

Claims 1 and 4-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. As set forth above, the use of the term discontinuous is indefinite where it cannot be ascertained from the drawings or specification, how the hills and valleys are in any way discontinuous. It is not clear what this term is referring or what scope this term has at this point, therefore there are no art rejections provided since the examiner cannot assume any type of meaning for this limitation, and it appears that the prior art of record does show the remaining limitations of the claim as set forth in previous rejections, however without an idea of what this new limitations meets and bounds are due to the lack of any support in the specification, such cannot be rejected at this time when the limitation appears to have no clear meaning.

Response to Arguments

Art Unit: 3754

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 4-9 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents to Furuta, Farrar, Lamb, Sakaya, Burkhardt, and Beshce which show corrugated tubes some having hills and valleys that are not the same shape or size which may suggest a type of discontinuity but without any support in the specification it is impossible to ascertain the meets and bounds of this limitation and therefore such cannot be applied at this time.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
